Marketing may include media campaigns, customer relationship building, property appearance or development, internet, or any other method the business has used to build its customer base.

3. New Business Venture

5. Micro Business (Five employees and fewer, including owner(s))

Awarded to a small business or home office which has demonstrated significant business achievement, sustainable performance, a high level of customer service, innovation, unique differentiation and community involvement. Judging will take into account the relative size of the business.

6. Battlefords' Best Employer

Awarded to an employer that excels in how employees are engaged in strategic goals and company values, and how human and supporting resources have been optimized to achieve and sustain commercial and competitive success. Judging will take into account the relative size of the business.
